The staff wishes to express it's thanks to the staff adviser, Mr. Richard Seltzer, and to Mike Badgett, whose hard work made this annual possible.

CONTENTS

We dedicate the 1971 Lancer to Mr. Conrad Holcomb

Eyes of question rest not-ask on Inquire into the spirit of a man - this man
He walks among men
And speaks their language,
Teaches and is taught
Loves and is loved,
Does all the things ordinary men may do-
Yet stands he apart and is nobler.
Frees his spirit...
A spirit that soars
Above the clouds
Of other men
Eyes of question be at ease, Search no more.
Thus a man... this man
Is good
Perchance a man, this man...
Is' great.

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.

It was but yesterday

we met in a dream.

You have sung to me

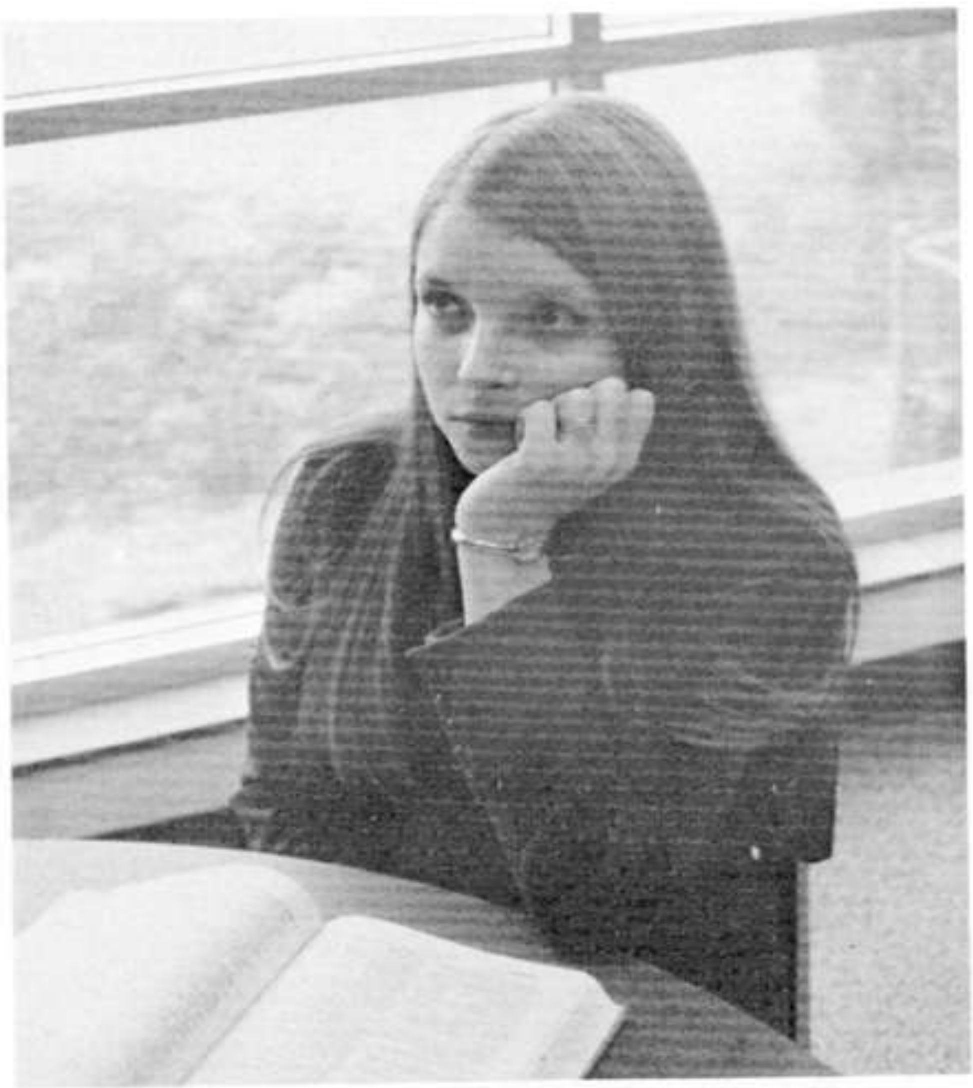

in my aloneness,

and of your longings
have built a tower
in the sky.

But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over and it is no longer dawn.

The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.

If in the twilight of once more, we shall
and you shall sing to memory we should meet

speak again together

me a deeper song.

and if our hands
should meet in another dream we shall build another
tower in he sky.

S.C.C. Fight Song

We're from Surry College and we are proud of her name.
Our team will fight and win for the blue and gold as did the mighty knights of old-the knights of old.
Come and join and sing the praise of Surry Let's loudly cheer for her fame.
We will cheer for her in victory..
and support her name.

and if our hands

shall build another
tower in the sky.

Kahil Gibran

Bewildered Freshman faces, cold winter mornings when the buildings seemed miles apart, spring days when excitement swept through the student lounge-these are intangibles, and difficult to capture within the pages of a yearbook. The staff and editor hope, however, that through pictures and poetry we can keep this year alive in your memories. The task has been long, but rewarding.
